THE NOVEMBER 1987 T.I.C.F.
WOODEN MONEY BREAKFAST MEETING

At the Nov T.I.C.F. SHOW the S.O.C. of C.A.W.M.C. sponsored a breakfast meeting on Sunday Morning at 8.30 at the Lakeshore Inn in Toronto Ontario. The meeting was well attended by C.A.W.M.C. members, and after a buffet style meal, the awards for the July T.I.C.F. WOOD DISPLAYS were Presented by John Curtis to Norm Belsten 1st, Paul Johnson 2nd, and John Rigitko 3rd. Don Robb signed some old and new members for C.A.W.M.C. 1988 and reported on the membership renewals. This was followed by a lively auction, interspersed with door draws, then some active trading at both the meeting and some of the hotel rooms. The meeting was such a success that another is planed for the March 25-27th 1988 T.I.C.F. but at 9.00 a.m. Sunday instead of 8.30 a.m.

PRESIDENTS MESSAGE;

Well the elections are over, we have a new executive for the next two years, and we are starting 1988. Over the last term of C.A.W.M.C. we awarded Norm Wells and Garry Braunwarth Honorary Life Memberships, and held very successful Breakfast Meetings at the C.N.A. in 1986 and 1987. Two wood catalogues were published, one for the ATLANTIC PROVINCES WOODS, the other the start of a newly formated catalogue FOR PEOPLE WHO COLLECT WOODEN MONEY. The association is in good financial state, and the membership is remaining about the same, as several new members replaced the ones we lost. I regret the passing of several C.A.W.M.C. members over the last two years, many of them personal friends, however I look forward to your continued support over the next term of office, and meeting as many of you as possible.

Happy Collecting

Norm

CHRISTMAS WOOD: Thanks to all those who sent their Christmas wood. They all can't be shown in this issue so will keep a few for future issues of Timber Talk.

FREE WOOD OF THE MONTH - NEXT MONTH: Watch for a Newfoundland wood and article next month.

CHRISTMAS WOOD: Flat Christmas wood from Clinton B. List, RR #2, 3280 Route 6, Eastham, Ma. 02642 - Clint will trade it for any wood or sell at 35¢ each. His rounds are in five colors and will sell this set for 50¢. Add SASE for sales, not for trades. William J. Kennedy Sr. of 5373 Seabeck Highway N. W., Bremerton, Wash., 98312 will trade his Christmas round (dollar size) with each paying own postage OR he will sell at 25¢ each plus SASE. The large flat from Rita M. Stankiewicz of 58 Shanley St., Cheektowaga, N. Y. 14206 is available for sale (50¢ + SASE) or trade. Jerry Remick, Box 9183, Ste-Foy, Quebec G1V 4B1 issued 2 different 3" x 4" wood flats. John Lawrence made 50 of each. Cost for the pair is $1.50 postpaid. Robert M. Brown, Jr. of P. O. Box 124, Highspire, Pa. 17034 will trade his wood for yours (or for another wood) and if any remain will honor requests without wood for SASE. I don't know about the availability of other woods shown.
